

What was YOUR Top Story from today?

Pick one story from today and describe how it could affect other parts of the world?

Did you learn anything that could have an influence on your future? What influence would it have?

Do you think the world leaders discussed in today's episode are making good decisions? If not, what would you do differently?

How can today's episode inform our prayer life?
